

Announcing the first annual

STUDENT-JURIED ART EXHIBIT

to be held at

THE ART DEPOSITORY

Nicholasville, KY

Exhibit dates: March 12 – April 30
Reception Friday, April 7, 4:30 -8:00 pm

Eligible: All Asbury students, faculty, and staff may apply.

Entry Guidelines: Students are invited to submit up to five works. Submitted works should be documented digitally, in high-resolution JPEG files, with one image of each two-dimensional work and up to three images of each three-dimensional work. Each image should be accompanied by the following information: Artist's name, title, media, dimensions, and date. Please submit images in clearly-labeled files on a CD, along with accompanying information.

Please CPO all entry materials to Sarah Jane Gray, Asbury Art Gallery Director, on or before Friday, February 17, 2005. Materials received after that date will not be considered for the exhibit.

Jurying Process: Submitted works will be juried by a panel of Asbury students under the guidance of Mary Kuster from the Art Depository. Decisions will be announced via CPO on or before Friday, March 3, along with further delivery information.

Delivery of Works: Accepted works must be framed or presented in a professional manner, with a wire hanging device on the back. Please mark the title and artist's full name on the back or bottom of each accepted work. Works should also be accompanied by a typed artist statement and brief biography, neither of which should exceed one page in length.

Works may be delivered to McCreless by 4:00pm on Friday, March 10 for delivery to the gallery. At the conclusion of the exhibit, works will be transported back to campus and will be available for pick-up on or after May 1.

Further questions regarding entries may be directed to Sarah Jane Gray, at sarahjanegray@gmail.com or cell phone (859) 361-1543.

More information about the Art Depository can be found at their website, www.artdepository.blogspot.com, or by e-mailing Eddie Clements & Mary Kuster at artdepository@yahoo.com

You may also wish to attend the reception for a group exhibit entitled "Artist's Passion," featuring nonprofessional artist whose work is a passion, but not a livelihood. The reception will take place at the Art Depository on Friday, February 17 from 4:30 – 8:00 pm.

The Art Depository is located at 106 E. Maple St. in Nicholasville, Kentucky.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO YOUR ENTRY!
