For the Shear Pleasure of Creating

June 14, 2007 – July 22, 2007

NICHOLASVILLE, KY, June 12, 2007: The Art Depository in downtown Nicholasville, KY will exhibit works from local non-professional artists from June 14 to July 22, 2007. An artist's reception open to the public will be held June 22, 2007 from 4-8 pm.

For the Shear Pleasure of Creating, this year's non-professionals exhibit is all about artists and craftspeople from the community who create and craft because they just love to do it. These folks come home at night after work and create, build and construct with watercolors or pottery, they scrapbook, collage, and paint, they quilt, knit or carve. They make gifts for friends and family. When they shop, they spend lots of time in the art supplies. They go to summer art fairs just to see what other people are doing. They burst with energy when it comes to crafting and creating.

This year's show will feature many paintings with pottery, stain glass, jewelry, Swedish weaving, quilts, graphite drawings, pen & ink, and musical instruments, from artists in Jessamine, Fayette, Woodford and Franklin Counties.

The Art Depository is currently open Thursday & Friday from 10 am – 7 pm, and Saturday from 10 am – 4 pm. Appointments can be made to view the gallery at other times by calling 859-885-0106. For more information contact the gallery at 859-885-0106 or artdepository@yahoo.com. See our blog at <http://artdepository.blogspot.com>.
